

How to Write and Submit a Resolution

Eastern Washington-Idaho Synod Assembly 2018

I. Validate Your Idea

- A. Do your research - Has a similar resolution been passed at a previous assembly?
- B. Will it conflict with the synod or churchwide constitution?
- C. Discuss your proposed resolution(s) with other people. If you have a difficult time convincing other individuals that your resolution is necessary, you may find it even harder to have your resolution receive approval by the assembly.
- D. Does this resolution address a major issue in the life and ministry of the synod?
- E. Is the issue addressed in this resolution worthy of the Assembly's consideration?

II. Write the Resolution

A. There are two parts to a resolution: "The Whereas" and "The Resolved"

- The "Whereas" clause(s) state the reasons for the proposed action(s).
 1. "Whereas" clauses are not voted on by the assembly. They are simply reasons or arguments toward adopting the "resolution."
 2. Each reason is given as a separate "Whereas."
 3. "Whereas" clauses should be accurate, factual, and well-documented. If a "Whereas" is based on information gathered from an outside resource, that should be footnoted and copies of that information should be included with the resolution when it is submitted.
- The "Resolved" statements declare the action(s) that will be taken if the resolution is approved.
 1. Each action is described as a separate "Resolved."
 2. State the resolution clearly and concisely. Does this resolution make sense?
 3. Can someone understand this resolution apart from its discussion at the assembly?

B. Details on the Who and What

- If the only action that is required is that the assembly do something, the customary language is: "...that the Eastern Washington-Idaho Synod, in Assembly,(insert desired action)"
- Resolutions may request action by a leadership group of the synod, e.g. the synod council, a synod mission table, a synod team or task force, a synod committee.
- If the resolution calls for someone or a group (other than a synod leadership group) to act, it is normally more appropriate for the Assembly to "encourage" or "request" an action than to "direct" an action.
- There are two kinds of motions that are used to request action by the ELCA Churchwide Organization.
 - A resolution may be transmitted to the ELCA Church Council or a ministry area of the church.
 - A resolution may be transmitted to the Churchwide Assembly for consideration. Such a resolution is called a memorial. Memorials address broad policy issues.
 - Normally, Synod Assemblies address the Churchwide Assembly. Synod Councils address the ELCA Church Council and Churchwide ministry areas through the ELCA Church Council's Executive Committee. If the Synod Assembly wishes to transmit a resolution to the ELCA Church Council or a Churchwide ministry area it does so by directing its Synod Council to transmit the resolution to the ELCA Church Council or to the Church Council's Executive Committee for referral to a Churchwide ministry area.

C. Details on the How

- How is the action to be funded?
- Specific timeline?
- Who is responsible for execution and reporting back?

III. Reference and Counsel Committee Review

The Reference and Counsel Committee shall receive and review all resolutions received prior to the deadline date of March 15, 2018. Resolutions submitted after the March 15, 2018 deadline and up to the deadline on the first day of the Synod Assembly will also be reviewed by the Reference and Counsel Committee. They will be considered only by the assembly if time allows and the assembly votes to address the resolution. Those resolutions or main motions originating in the Synod Council or the Executive Committee shall be presented to the Synod Assembly for consideration as drafted.
