

Philip Streufert, STM

Director of Consultation to Clergy

Philip is an ordained Lutheran Pastor and Certified Pastoral Counselor. He served for thirty years in a Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod parish in Spokane and maintained a part-time marriage and family therapy and vocational consulting practice for more than ten years. Phil's education background includes a bachelor's degree from Concordia University in St. Paul and graduate degrees from Lutheran School of Theology in Chicago (M-Div) and Wartburg Theological Seminary in Dubuque, IA (STM). In addition, he has received extensive post-graduate training in marriage and family therapy and life transitions counseling from Southeast Institute in Chapel Hill, NC and from Eastern Washington University Graduate School. He is a certified member of the American Association of Pastoral Counselors (AAPC), the American Counseling Association (ACA) and the National Career Development Association (NCDA).

Phil and his wife Rebecca are the parents of three children and three grandchildren. Their sons are married and working in the Seattle area and their daughter is married and going to graduate school in Michigan. Phil and Becky's interests include enjoying their grandchildren, travel (especially in Europe) and riding their bicycles along a quiet trail.